

Leading the Lean|Agile Software Enterprise

by Dean Leffingwell

About Dean Leffingwell

Author

Coach

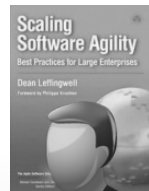

Agile Enterprise Coach
To some of the worlds largest software enterprises

Agile Executive Mentor
BMC

Chief Methodologist
Rally Software

Cofounder/Advisor
Ping Identity, Roving Planet, Silver Creek Systems, Rally Software

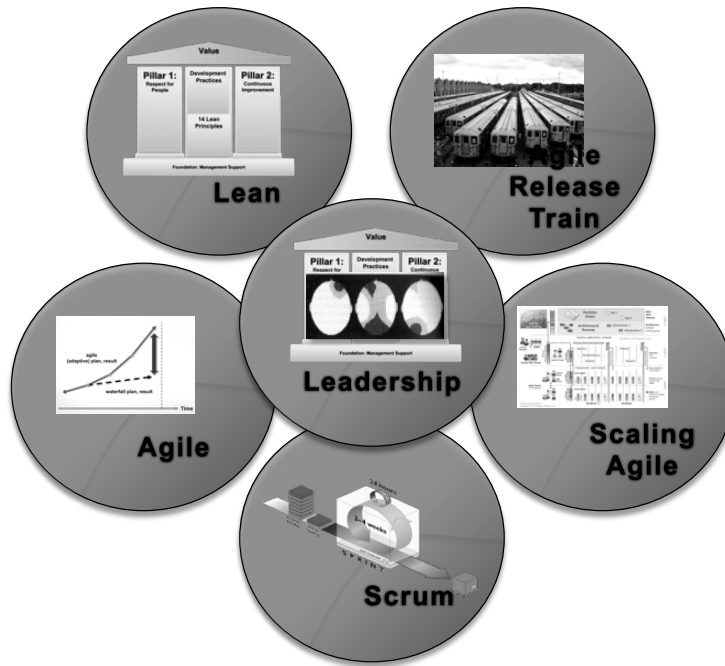

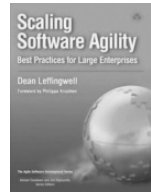

Executive

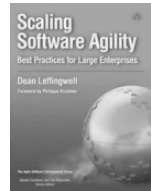

Founder and CEO
ProQuo, Inc., Internet identity

Senior VP
Rational Software
Responsible for Rational Unified Process (RUP) & Promulgation of UML

Founder/CEO
Requisite, Inc.
Makers of RequisitePro

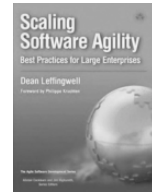

Learning Objectives

1. Provide a principled, lean and flow-based product development foundation for improving competitiveness and product development economics
2. Introduce basic and scaled agile principles and practices
3. Introduce and experience Scrum for implementing team-level agility
4. Introduce and explore the Agile Release Train to provide strategic alignment and product development flow
5. Introduce a shared-responsibility leadership framework to help build high performing software teams

Workshop Agenda

Day 1		Day 2
8:30–9:00	Introductions and Agenda	8:30–9:00	Day 1 Recap, Overview
9:00–10:15	Lean Product Development	9:00–10:15	Scaling Software Agility
10:15–10:30	Break	10:15–10:30	Break
10:30–12:00	Agile Software Development	10:30–12:00	The Agile Release Train
12:00–13:00	Lunch	12:00–13:00	Lunch
13:00–17:00	Experiencing Scrum	13:00–17:00	Lean Agile Leadership: Building High Performing Teams